Southern Management Participates in the Prince George's County Schools Principal for a Day Program

Vienna, VA: Seven employees of Southern Management Corporation participated in the Prince George's County Public Schools Principal for a Day Program, Thursday, April 27.

Now in its third year, the Program brings individuals from County businesses into the public schools for an up close look at school life. Each volunteer serves as an elementary, middle or high school principal for a day. Volunteers receive the experiences, challenges and rewards that school principals face on a daily basis.

Southern Management President Ron Frank stated that "Southern Management Corporation support of the Principal for a Day Program is part of a diverse educational outreach program with Prince George's County schools. As the largest owner of apartment buildings in Prince George's County, Southern Management and its team members are committed to enhancing the quality of living and educational opportunities for its residents." Southern Management Corporation offers a variety of educational
